University of Opole

21 July - 1 August 2025

Study, explore and have fun at the heart of Europe!

THE CORE COURSE - 34H

The aim of the course is to help students achieve fluency in discussing various topics concerning daily and university life and to enable them to express and exchange ideas concerning various issues; to familiarize students with certain terms, idiomatic expressions and grammatical constructions that aim at improving their ability to express themselves well; to enhance speaking, writing, listening and reading skills by introducing specific vocabulary and grammatical forms to develop students' confidence in communicating in English.

"Experience is the teacher of all things".

AFTERNOON WORKSHOPS AND EXCURSIONS – 20 H

Workshops will allow you to practice and expand your communicative skills beyond the classroom environment in natural, spontaneous situations. They will involve such activities as cooking classes, photography workshops, sightseeing trips, professional resume workshops, movie night, as well as meetings with interesting people. The programme also includes a two-day trip to Kraków (Poland's ancient capital) and an afternoon excursion to Moszna castle (optional).
